committee should be accompanied by an information sheet that includes: 1) author's name (with Katakana reading), 2) affiliation and title, 3) university level education and higher (if within the last 10 years) 4) contact address, telephone number, and e-mail address. (In case of a co-authored work, only the primary author's address, telephone number, and e-mail address should be included.), and 5) category of manuscript (article, report or notes). A floppy disk containing the same information from 1) to 5) should also be enclosed. Four copies of the manuscript (two with author's name and two without author's name) should be sent together. As a rule, manuscripts will not be returned to authors.

8. Corrections and Revisions of Manuscripts

After the editorial committee makes a decision to publish a manuscript, they may request that the author make changes to the style and format. The committee may also make minor format changes at its discretion. Once the decision to publish a manuscript is made, the author will not be allowed to make any further changes to his/her manuscript, except where revisions are requested by referees and the editorial committee.

9. Copyright

- 1) Authors are responsible for obtaining written consent from research subjects, as well as permission to use any copyrighted material or databases as a source in their manuscripts.
- 2) The copyright for all papers published in the journal belongs to The National Institute for Japanese Language (according to the Copyright Law of Japan, including Articles 27 and 28).
- 3) Summaries of published articles appear in Linguistic Abstracts (Arizona State University) in English.
